Nurses “Step Up”
To Save Auxiliary

After 69 year, the Wayne County Hospital Auxiliary sent invitations to a luncheon/meeting on September 10 with plans to disband the organization.

The luncheon was expected to be the final meeting.....However, three nurses, pictured above, Tasha Bailley, Heidi Lancaster and Melanie Arnold formulated a plan to “turn around” the plan to disband.

In two days, the young women had more than 93 new members.

Seeing the enthusiasm shown by the nurses, the auxiliary is now making plans for a soup supper and silent auction November 10th.

Watch The Herald for more information on th upcoming event and make plans to attend and /or donate.

Keepin’ in Touch

As the layout went this week, and we had obituaries for page 2, HERE WE ARE OVER HERE ON PAGE 5!

And, as it worked out, I have extra space, and can use some good thoughts I had found, just waiting for a time I could use them.

What about this summer weather we are having this past week? After having the days of fall like weather, which were a few awesome days, it seemed a little Hot! But, by January, we will be thinking warmer days would sound pretty good.

I think nearly all of us can agree, which would be amazing! Fall days are pretty wonderful. Warm sunshine, blue sky, fluffy clouds, a very light breeze, which are all my descriptions of a Prefect Fall Day! And if I don’t have anything to do on that Perfect Day, only to be outside and enjoy the weather.

From having conversation with family of Donald Morgan, it sure provided us with conversations of memories. Jan (Stiles) Morgan and Mom were neighbors growing up, living on North 5th St., which was a lovely street as you came into town, in my memories, reminds me of a version of Mayberry St. on the Andy Griffith show.

When I asked Karen what her fondest memory of Jan is, besides the wonderful person she is, Karen remembered in a flat second, a little story Mike Cleeton talked about every time they reminisced about childhood. Mike got in trouble with Grandma Margaret, and Grandma sent him to the bedroom ad shut the door. Well, Jan knew what had happened, and she, as any good friend would do, went around to that corner of the house, and managed to help Mike escape! The ending of the story we are unsure of! I am sitting her laughing, just thinking of that whole scenario!

And, even though I was younger than Donald, over the years, and since Dorothy and Harvey were life long area residents, I can attest what nice, kind, caring folks they were.

And, as it worked out, I have extra space, and can use some good thoughts I had found, just waiting for a time I could use them.

The clip I had saved is advice from an old farmer, and over the years, I have found the generation or two who are older than us, have thoughts we could all listen to.

Today, Tuesday, the 16th, would be my Dad’s 93rd birthday, so I thought this would celebrate him, and, even though he didn’t write these tidbits, I think there are some he would totally agree with, even though he might have said them a bit differently. And, I think all of us can use a little helpful advice every now and again.

Advice from An Old Farmer

Your fences need to be horse-high, pig-tight and bull-strong.

Keep skunks and bankers at a distance.

Life is simpler when you plow around the stump.

A bumble bee is considerably faster than a John Deere tractor.

Words that soak into your ears are whispered... not yelled.

Meanness don’t jes’ happen overnight.

Forgive your enemies; it messes up their heads.

Do not corner something that you know is meaner than you.

It don’t take a very big person to carry a grudge.

You cannot unsay a cruel word.

Every path has a few puddles.

When you wallow with pigs, expect to get dirty.

The best sermons are lived, not preached.

Most of the stuff people worry about ain’t never gonna happen anyway.

Don’t judge folks by their relatives.

Remember that silence is sometimes the best answer.

Live a good, honorable life... Then when you get older and think back, you’ll enjoy it a second time.

Don ‘t interfere with somethin’ that ain’t bothering you none.

Timing has a lot to do with the outcome of a Rain dance.

If you find yourself in a hole, the first thing to do is stop diggin’.

Sometimes you get, and sometimes you get got.

The biggest troublemaker you’ll probably ever have to deal with, watches you from the mirror every mornin’.

Always drink upstream from the herd.

Good judgment comes from experience, and a lotta that comes from bad judgment.

Lettin’ the cat outta the bag is a whole lot easier than puttin’ it back in.

If you get to thinkin’ you’re a person of some influence, try orderin’ somebody else’s dog around..

Live simply. Love generously. Care deeply. Speak kindly. Leave the rest to God.

Don’t pick a fight with an old man. If he is too old to fight, he’ll just kill you.

Most times, it just gets down to common sense.

“Love and compassion are necessities, not luxuries. Without them, humanity cannot survive.”

Until Next Time.....Keep in Touch
