Wilton resident, 16, charged with attempted murder, administering harmful substances

Jonathan Stephen Grotzky, 16, appeared in Cedar County district court for an April 16 hearing. After a testimony, Grotzky was formally charged and given an arraignment order scheduled for 9 a.m. May 2, 2025.

Grotzky was charged with attempted murder, a class B felony in Iowa, and administering harmful substances, a class D felony. He is being tried as an adult, with the possibility of his case being moved back to juvenile court.

According to an affidavit filed in district court on Feb. 26, Grotzky “put bleach in his mother’s, Mary Grotzky, drink in hopes of killing her. The victim took a drink of the liquid which caused a burning to her throat.” The alleged murder attempt was made Feb. 11 between 8 a.m. and 2 p.m. when they were both at their Wilton home, according to Deputy Sheriff Austin Sorgenfrey’s statement made in the court filing.

A warrant for Grotzky’s arrest was requested by Deputy Sheriff Sorgenfrey and Sheriff Warren Washington on Feb. 26. Following his arrest, Grotzky was taken to a southeast Iowa facility, and is being held there on a $30,000 cash bond. If convicted, Grotzky could serve up to 25 years.

Crawford Muscatine to host ribbon cutting and open house

Crawford Company Muscatine, 913 East 2nd Street in Muscatine will host a ribbon cutting 3 p.m. this Thursday, April 24. Refreshments will be served. Parking will be available on site.

Mayor and Chamber President Brad Bark, City of Muscatine, and Crawford officials will offer comments on Crawford’s expansion into the Muscatine market. Chamber Ambassadors will be in attendance to commemorate the event. Guests will celebrate the expansion and ribbon cutting while learning about Crawford culture and services: heating, ventilation, air conditioning, plumbing, electrical and fabrication.

Crawford Company has been serving the Quad Cities market since 1952. Maintaining a commitment to strategic business growth, Crawford identified the opportunity to expand into the Muscatine market. Crawford Muscatine opened its doors in November 2023 with an office located at 133 West 2nd Street. In April 2024, Crawford moved to its current location and began renovations. The 5,200 sq. ft. facility provides office, shop and inventory space for estimators, project managers, field technicians and administrative support.
