SENIOR NEWS

Come join us for a good hot meal! The suggested contribution is $5 for those over 60. Service will not be denied based on your level of contribution. Meals are currently served Monday through Thursday at 11:30 a.m. at the Bloomfield Senior Center.

A recent change has occurred in our phone number. Our new contact number of 1-563-940-9628 is now readily available for any inquiries or correspondence.

Monday, July 21: Our exercise program had two participants. Paula prepared turkey salad on wheat, three bean salad, chips, and apricots. Paula travelled out on the home delivery route today.

Tuesday, July 22: The morning started with three participating in our strength and balance exercise class. Paula served us chicken and noodles, mashed potatoes, mixed veggies, mandarin oranges, and whole wheat bread. Barb Williams and Eldinah Stockham delivered meals to Pulaski for our homebound participants. Cathy McClurg and Barb Williams called this afternoon's bingos games. There were seven bingo players enjoying the afternoon activity. Games included big picture frame, letter X and the four corners. Bonnie Martin and Kathy McClurg were the blackout winners.

Wednesday, July: 23: Our exercise program had two participants. Paula was in the kitchen making us baked ham, scalloped potatoes, broccoli and cauliflower, pineapple, and a wheat roll. Paula delivered meals to our homebound.

Thursday, July 24: We had three in our exercise class program this morning, everyone is welcome to join us. Paula presented everyone with a delicious dinner of Swedish meatballs, noodles, Italian veggies, tropical fruit, oatmeal raisin cookie for our hour-long bingo activity; they played games like big picture frame, two under each letter and first seven covered. Our blackout winner was Kathy McClurg.

Please make plans to join us and have a fun time.

CORRESPONDENTS' REPORTS

Pulaski News
By Deb Baughman
I am sorry I missed the whole DC Fair; it must have been a good one. I had planned to go Saturday but the downpour put a crimp in those plans.

I heard that a rural Pulaski gal won best of show for birds, with a gorgeous golden pheasant that had King Tut markings on head feathers. Makes you wonder if Tut had one of those birds as inspiration for his headdress.

Congratulations to all the kids and adults who made the fair a success. You have to admire all the hours of work to prepare. It sounds like Mila and Sam Tira enjoyed the fair.

Ginny Lammert and I and 15 other painters spent three days in Van Buren County at their Paint the Fair competition. The first two days you can paint anywhere in the county, the last day must be at the fair.

It is interesting to watch the kids prep their sheep and goats, with hair dryers, clippers and the whole shebang. Some of them could be barbers, I think.

Gin won third place. I was lucky to sell four pieces at the show. I met several former students there and a couple of former teachers. It is a fun event, but tiring.

Several artists painted the old Oak Grove 1895 church and school near Douds. The buildings have been restored, and one of the board members went to the one room school for 8 years.

I hope you are enjoying a garden bounty—sweet corn, cucumbers, green beans, etc.

My son Andy and Beth have some very nice large onions from their raised beds.

The Master Gardeners had a good event at the fair also with their herb plantings.
