Wildcat golf teams continue to play well in early part of season

by ACE HENDRICKS

The Columbus Wildcats golf squads have shown very well early in the season, as the girls squad sits with four meet victories in as many meets, and as a team have seem excellent play from all their golfers.

The boys squad has a record of 1-4, but are staying very competitive, led by Ryan Coil and Kason Dopler. Mason Heck, Mason Hardy, and Kai Allec continue to make strides as the season is hitting its stride.

This week both linksters will be busy; the boys squad were in action on Tuesday, with a meet at Wahkonsa Country Club, and both squads were in action at Heritage Oaks Golf and Country Club on Wednesday, and finish out the week with a meet against WACO on Thursday, April 24, at Twin Lakes Golf Course.

APRIL 8

The Wildcats won a nine-hole meet at Cedar Crest with Lone Tree on April 8.

The Columbus ladies won by a score of 228-0, with Lily Coil and Hailey Wellington taking home medalist honors with a 50; Aracely Garza was runner up with a 58. Madeleine Howell and Madelyn Payne tied for fourth with a 70.

The Boys squad outscored the Lions, 198-210, led by medalist Ryan Coil's 45, and Kason Dopler's runner-up 47. Mason Heck and Mason Hardy finished sixth with a 53, with Kai Allec finishing 11th with a 72.

APRIL 10

The Wildcats split a SEISC head to head on April 10 at Twin Lakes Golf Course.

Despite a medalist finish of 52 by Kellee Milks of Winfield-Mt. Union, the Wildcats were awarded victors, 225-0, due to the fact the Wolves having just three golfers.

Kinlee Brown was runner-up with a 53, and Wellington third with a 54; Garza tied for fifth with a 56, and Coil was seventh with a 62. Jocelyn Hernandez finished eighth with a 63, and Howell ninth with a 68.

The Winfield-Mt. Union boys outshot the Wildcat golfers, 167-211, with Justin Knipfer taking home medalist with a 40. Cody Milks and Max Edwards were runners-up with a 42.

Coil was the highest place winner for the Wildcats, tied for fifth with a 44; Doppler was eight with a 48. Heck finished with ninth with a 58, Hardy 10th with a 61, and Allec 11th with a 66.
