

Short Takes

Local museums are open for the summer season

THE WILSON BREWER PARK DEPOT museum has begun its summer season, with the Depot open each Friday and Saturday from 1 to 4 p.m. The depot, which is in the midst of exterior repairs and renovations, is known for the historic collections collected by many families of Webster City, in addition to the Frank Bonebright collections. The museum is located at 220 Ohio Street in Webster City.

THE JANE YOUNG HOUSE will be open on a limited basis throughout 2025, starting Saturday May 24 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

This spring, the Jane Young House Foundation paid for the renovation of the kitchen which has recreated the look of a 1900s home.

The current exhibits are in support of the re-opening of the Webster Theater, with the theme, "Let's all go to the movies."

The Jane Young House is located at 626 Elm Street in Webster City.

Both museums suggest a $5 donation per person.

Wilson Brewer Park Foundation Board meeting is May 21

The Wilson Brewer Park and Depot Foundation board meeting will be held on Wednesday, May 21, at 6 p.m., in the basement of the Depot at 220 Ohio Street, Webster City.

Items on the agenda include setting a date for volunteer training, updates on the building repairs and a change to the collections policy.

The family of Betty Olmstead would like to thank our family and friends who sent cards and flowers. A special thank you to Pastor Tony & Robin for their visits to the hospital, and the beautiful service. Thank you to Dr. Ehn, Jode Williams, EMS team, Van Diest Medical Center, and the WC Police Dept. A very heartfelt thank you to the nurses, CMA's, Shelby Nokes and the Therapy Dept. A big thank-you to Bowman Funeral Home and staff. Your exceptional care during this difficult time was amazing.

God bless!
