Code Counsel: Image of Pride Awards Program

BY JIM DAVIES
MEMBER AT LARGE,
HAMPTON CITY COUNCIL

The City of Hampton's Image of Pride Awards Program recognizes and celebrates property owners who set an outstanding example through exceptional exterior maintenance or improvements to their property.

Hampton City Council first gave the Image of Pride Award in May 2014.

By honoring these individuals, the program aims to inspire others in the community to take pride in their own properties and contribute to the beauty of Hampton.

Nominations for this special recognition are accepted at City Hall beginning in April each year. Awards are presented during the regular City Council meetings held in May, June, July, August, September, and October.

Do you know a property owner who deserves this honor? Submit your nomination at City Hall.

A nomination form is available on the city's website, www.hamptonia.us or at Hampton City Hall.

Anyone may nominate a property for the Image of Pride Award by completing a form and submitting it to City Hall, along with any relevant supporting materials or photographs.

Please note that the cost of improvements or maintenance is not a factor in the selection process. Instead, the award emphasizes the property's overall appearance, its compatibility with the surrounding neighborhood, and the evident effort put into consistent upkeep or enhancement.

If a property clearly contributes to the visual appeal of the neighborhood through ongoing care or improvements, it deserves to be nominated.

Be sure to include photographs of the property—before and after images, if applicable—along with your completed nomination form.

Mail or deliver the nomination information to City of Hampton, Attn: Image of Pride, 122 1st Avenue NW, Hampton, IA 50441.

For more information call Hampton City Hall at 641-456-4853.
