

What's At The Windsor

BY JIM DAVIES
WINDSOR THEATRE
MANAGER

How To Train Your Dragon will open nationally and be shown at the Windsor Theatre starting Friday, June 13 through Thursday, June 26.

Showtimes are Friday, Saturday, Sunday, Wednesday and Thursday at 7 pm with Sunday and Wednesday afternoon matinees at 1 pm.

How To Train Your Dragon is distributed by Universal Pictures and the run time is 125 minutes. It is rated PG due to sequences of intense action and peril.

Parents need to know that How to Train Your Dragon is a live-action remake of the same-named 2010 film; both are based on the children's book by Cressida Cowell.

The story follows a Viking named Hiccup Horrendous Haddock III (Mason Thames), the wise but overlooked son of chieftain Stoick the Vast (Gerard Butler) on the isle of Berk. When Hiccup defies typical Viking behavior and befriends a Night Fury dragon named Toothless rather than destroy it, the pair's bond challenges Viking society.

When an ancient threat emerges that endangers both species, Hiccup's friendship with Toothless becomes the key to forging a new future. Together, they must navigate the delicate path toward peace, soaring beyond the boundaries of their worlds and redefining what it means to be a hero and a leader.

Given that it's live action instead of animated, it could feel a bit more intense than the original, with battles and perilous situations that may be too scary for younger kids
