His Favorite: Love Through Jesus' Eyes Do you know what it feels like to be loved—truly loved—as if you were the favorite? That's exactly how Jesus sees us. Not with general affection, but with an intimate, unwavering love. A love that says, "You are Mine." In John 15:9, Jesus says, "As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love." Think about that. The way the Father loves Jesus—perfectly, eternally, without condition—is how Jesus loves you. Not a diluted version. The same love. You are not tolerated; you are treasured. Jesus didn't just preach love; He lived it. He proved it Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends" (John 15:13). And He calls you friend. You. Right where you are. When Jesus prayed in John 17, just before His arrest, He had us in mind. "I in them and you in me, that they may become perfectly one, so that the world may know that you sent me and loved them even as you loved me" (John 17:23). Did you catch that? The Father loves us even as He loves Jesus. To the one who feels overlooked, Jesus says, "Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine (Isaiah 43:1). He sees you—not just as part of the crowd, but as His own. His favorite. Not because others are less loved, but because His love for each of us is total.

Let this love be your identity. Rest in it. "See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are" (1 John 3:1).

You are not forgotten. Open your heart to His love, His grace, His mercy. You are not second-best. You are His beloved. His friend. Closer than a brother. And in His eyes—you're His favorite. All glory to God.
