Alleged MS-13 Gang Member Kilmar
Abrego Garcia Suspected Of Human Trafficking, Feds Say

The feds suspected alleged MS-13 gang member Kilmar Abrego Garcia, who was deported to El Salvador in an error, was engaged in human and labor trafficking in 2022, according to an internal memo obtained by The Post. The DHS intelligence report noted that Abrego Garcia was pulled over by the Tennessee Highway Patrol on Dec. 1, 2022, after he was caught speeding. Cops suspected human trafficking was involved because Abrego Garcia and his eight passengers had no luggage despite having been on the road for three days traveling from Texas to Maryland. All nine passengers also gave the same home address to a responding officer. The officer wrote that he suspected "a human trafficking incident" following the stop. Assistant DHS Secretary Tricia McLaughlin told The Post Friday that not only is Abrego Garcia an "MS-13 gang member" and an "illegal alien," he's a "suspected human trafficker."

Georgia Man Arrested For Allegedly Threatening To Kill Tulsi Gabbard
And Her Family

Federal agents arrested a Georgia man for allegedly threatening to kill Director of National Intelligence Tulsi Gabbard and her family. Aliakbar Mohammad Amin allegedly sent threatening messages over text about Gabbard and her husband. These alleged text messages included: "You and your family are going to die soon" and "I will personally do the job if necessary. Death to America means death to America literally, Tulsi is living on borrowed time...Prepare to die, you, Tulsi, and everyone you hold dear. America will burn." Furthermore, the federal government also found similar threats Amin made on social media. The 24-year-old had an image showing a firearm pointed at a picture of Gabbard... Federal agents seized that firearm after conducting a search warrant on Amin's home.

U.S. Considering Major Syria Withdrawal
- Washington Post

U.S. President Donald Trump's administration is considering a significant reduction of American troops in Syria, the Washington Post reported on Thursday, citing officials familiar with military planning. Washington insisted they were deployed to counter ISIS, though they have remained in the years since Syria's war ended. A U.S. official focused on the region told the WaPo there's an expectation that troop numbers would be cut "to a bare minimum," adding "I think we're going to go down to one very small place in the northeast." A defense official confirmed ongoing plans to "reduce" and "consolidate" Wash-

Kiev Using Taurus Missiles Against Russia
Would Mean Berlin Enters Conflict

Moscow would consider any strikes by Kiev on Russian targets using German-supplied Taurus missiles as direct participation by Berlin in the Ukraine conflict, Foreign Ministry spokesperson Maria Zakharova has warned. Her comments come after incoming German chancellor Friedrich Merz indicated that he would be open to supplying Kiev with long-range Taurus cruise missiles. The weapon has a 500km strike range, meaning they could be used to attack targets deep inside Russian territory. Germany's current acting chancellor Olaf Scholz has repeatedly refused Kiev's requests for the missiles, citing fears of an escalation of the conflict.
