O.D.O. Club

The O.D.O. Club met September 25 at the Dew Drop Inn with Janet Askew as hostess. Roll call was a quiz on "Who Really Knows Grandma?" answered by Shirley Wheatley, Janet Askew, Norita Gour, Twila Nelson, Nadine Kading, and Lorinda Patchin. There was a short business meeting.

The club will eat lunch with our husbands and guests 11:30 at The Olive Branch in Greenfield October 9.

Adair Women's Club

The Adair Women's Club met September 24 at 7:00 p.m. at the Adair Library. The meeting was called to order by co-president Linda Hemminger. She introduced the evening's speaker, Ardie Klemish. Ardie presented a very informative program about Lions Club, the world's largest service organization.

The business meeting began with members standing for the Pledge of Allegiance. Thirteen members answered the roll call question, "What is your favorite charity?" Pat Pettinger gave the secretary's and treasurer's reports, which were approved. The treasurer's report is unchanged from the previous month. There were no bills to present at this time. Thank you notes were passed around. One was from the AC teachers, thanking us for the school supplies. The other was from principal Ed Den Beste, thanking us for inviting him to speak about the school.

Unfinished business: The Women's Club tree for the Festival of Trees was discussed. It was decided to have a tree featuring board games and card games to donate to the Boys and Girls Club. Members will donate money at the next meeting; one person will do the shopping. The planters should be back on main street soon.

New business: Pat will have a sign-up list at the next meeting for jobs and shifts for the Festival of Trees December 6. Last year's committee will locate the signs for this event. Treat bags for Halloween will be assembled at City Hall after coffee some morning. Our club will be handing out the treats at Patsy Wood's house this year. Teresa will be purchasing new bows and balls for the planter decorations.

The collect was recited, and the meeting was adjourned.

The next meeting will be held October 22 at 7:00 at the library, with a program presented by Little Smiles. Hostesses are Deanna Chesnut and Sheryl Miller.
