Audubon
Easter Egg
Hunt

Photos by Brian Rathjen

The Easter Bunny is going to be quite busy in the coming weeks as he makes his annual visits around the world, and yes, southwest Iowa is on his long, long list of planned stops. He's already made one stop, and it was in Audubon, where he was met by plenty of his adoring fans during an Easter Egg hunt Saturday, April 12, at the city square. Lots of area children turned out for photo opportunities and to snatch up plenty of goodies hidden inside colorful plastic eggs. And yes, there's more Easter Egg hunts that will be coming in the next week around the area. The event was sponsored by the Audubon Firehouse Flames with numerous donations from businesses and individuals.

Upcoming Movies at the Rose Theater

April 18 — 20: The Last Supper (PG-13) — The Last Supper is a 2025 American Biblical drama film about the last days of Jesus Christ. In the days leading to betrayal, a gathering of disciples unravels into a web of secrets and hidden motives. As tensions simmer beneath the surface, trust is tested, and loyalty is questioned. The Last Supper becomes a night where nothing is as it seems, and every glance hides a deeper truth.

April 25 — 27: A Minecraft Movie (PG) — A mysterious portal pulls four misfits into the Overworld, a bizarre, cubic wonderland that thrives on imagination. To get back home, they'll have to master the terrain while embarking on a magical quest with an unexpected crafter named Steve.
