

Audubon County Advocate Journal's Athlete of the Week
Austin Rasmussen, jr.
Exira-EHK boys track

It's been a busy spring for Austin Rasmussen. In addition to keeping up his golf game – he had a good score of 43 on the back nine of the Atlantic Golf & Country Club in this week's Rolling Valley Conference round-robin meet – he's been tearing it up on the track. Rasmussen's latest efforts brought him a win, coming at Tuesday's CAM Cougar Classic. After shadowing Woodbine's Evan Estrada most of the way in the 3200-meter run, he pulled ahead late to win the event in 10:49.45, 27 seconds ahead of Estrada. Rasmussen came back to take third in the 1600-meter run, an event he's won in the past. Within the Rolling Valley Conference, Rasmussen's best time ranks him second in the 3200-meter (behind Estrada, so he beat him) and third in the 1600-meter run. Here's to continued improvement and a push toward state. Great job, Austin!

Exira-EHK's Josh Nelson waits for his turn on the 18th hole during Rolling Valley Conference golf action Monday, April 21, at Atlantic Golf & Country Club.

Henry Burr registered five pars en route to a score of 89, while Oliver Deist had a 93 and Mason Steckler a 98, combining for four more pars.

Audubon is at home today (Friday) against Riverside, where the girls will be in action for the first time in more than a week. The Wheelers finished with a 365. Host Panorama won the meet with a 341, eight strokes ahead of Iowa Class 3A Webster City.
