Shelby County Speedway weekly recap: New winners

by Don Hawkins

HARLAN — It doesn't get any better than 136 cars, Great racing action, food, beverage and fun. Starting on time and providing a three and a half-hour show for the fans. All wrapped up at 10:33 PM. This night was Suicide Awareness night sponsored by Gregerson Motorsports, Who procured additional awards for the feature winners.

Action got underway with heats in the KNOD Hobby Stocks. And taking the checkers in the heats were Colby Christensen, Dayton Ullrich and Kaylb Brunssen. In the A Feature coming from the 6th starting spot Colby Christensen charged his way to the front and never looked back picking up the win. Kaylb Brunssen came through from the 9th spot to capture 2nd place. With 3rd place to Anthony Davis and 4th place to Jason Tetzlaff.

In the Murphy Equipment IMCA Stock Cars heats were won by Tyson Partridge, Mike Stapleton and Carson Reinig. Feature action saw Tyson Partridge pick up his 1st win ever at SCS. Doing a great job holding off challenges from point leader Mike Albertsen who came in 2nd, Bob Daniels finished 3rd and Larry Robinson Jr rounded out the top four. Congratulations to Tyson on your 1st win!

It was National points night for Joe's Carting mini mods. A great field of 23 of these guys were here tonight. Heat winners were Bobby Daniels, Ben Mattick and Joey Robel. Action in the feature saw Robel take the win from start to finish with Ben Mattick finishing 2nd, Brant Tweed 3rd and Lucas Daniels rounded out the top four. This race had some spectacular rollovers and the good news nobody was hurt.

Action in the Keast Motors IMCA Sport Mods saw Heats taken by Cody Olsen, Kevin Zeitner and Jenae Gustin. In the B Feature Gregg Hamann picked up the win over Joe Hendricks. Then Kevin Zeitner took advantage of his pole position start and pretty much checked out on the field as nobody could catch the 60 machine. Kevin, a former track champion at SCS on the big track, picked up the win, his first since winning the Tiny Lund the last year on the big track before the reconfiguration. Coming in 2nd place was Dylan Petersen who had a great run as did Jenae Gustin in 3rd and Cody Olsen finished in 4th.

In Atlantic Bottling Coca Cola IMCA Sport Compacts 27 cars were on hand and we had 3 heats. Heat winners were Caine Mahlberg, Josh Deist and Kaytee Devries. In the feature Caine Mahlberg made his way from the 10th starting spot to the lead and went on for the win. 2nd place went to Michael Gardner, 3rd went to Kaytee Devries and Levi Volkert finished in 4th.

Sport Compacts continue to put on a great show weekly at SCS.

In the Sorensen Equipment IMCA Late Models yet another fine field was on hand. Heat winners were Zach Zeitner, Allan Hopp and Jake Sully. In Feature action Mike Collins made his way to the front. And picked up a long-awaited win at SCS. Collins looked strong as he held off Nick Deal who got 2nd with Kale Kosiski finishing 3rd and 4th spot went to Zach Zeitner.

It was another great night of action at SCS. Don't miss this week on Back-to-School night as we have Kids Bike races and Bikes to give away! It's always a fun night with the kids.
