REMEMBRANCE

Barbara Tinsley
75

Barbara Elisabeth Tinsley, 75, of Iowa City passed away, Thursday, July 24, 2025 at Crestview Specialty Care, West Branch, IA.
A Funeral Mass will be held at 11 AM, Friday, August 1, 2025, at St. Wenceslaus Catholic Church, Iowa City. Visitation will be held one hour prior to Mass. Burial will be at held at 1 PM, Monday, August 4, 2025, at Harlan Cemetery, Harlan, IA. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to
St. Wenceslaus Catholic Church or the Newman Catholic Student Center at the University of Iowa.

Barbara was born on March 21, 1950, in Harlan, IA to William and Lorna (Murphy) Tinsley. She graduated from Harlan High School in 1968 as valedictorian Then enrolling in The University of Iowa Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders at the Wendell Johnson Speech and Hearing Center, completing a masters degree in speech pathology in 1973. Barbara was a speech pathologist for Webster School District for several years and then worked for The University of Iowa Hospital as a purchasing agent before retiring in 1995.

Barbara was a long time member of St. Wenceslaus Church of Iowa City having served in the past on the parish counsel and the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) committee.

Barbara was an avid reader and enjoyed cooking a baking bread and collecting dolls. She was particularly fond of the music of Tennessee Ernie Ford and Johnny Cash and the Beatles.

Though she never had any children of her own, she loved children and positively impacted those who were lucky enough to know her as a babysitter – or better yet, a second mom. There are many children to whom she remains a special person in their lives. She will be missed.

Barbara is survived by her brother, Bob Tinsley of Iowa City; and many cousins. She was preceded in death by her parents and brother, Bill Tinsley.

Online condolences may be left for the family at www.lensingfuneral.com

Rex Whannell
78

Rex Andrew Whannell was born on April 2, 1947, at the hospital in Manning, Iowa, to Andrew "Bruce" and Mildred (Buck) Whannell. He spent the first 12 years of his life on a farm south of Shelby, Iowa, and attended Shelby School.

In 1959, the family moved to the "White Star Farm," located east of Harlan on Highway 44.
Rex attended school in Harlan and graduated with the Class of 1968. During high school, he was active in football, wrestling, and the Harlan High FFA Chapter. He was also involved in 4-H events and was a member of the Center Corners 4-H Club. In addition to helping his dad on the farm, he held a full-time job at the Pork Plant east of Harlan.
In 1969, the family moved to a farm located northeast of Harlan.

A dedicated racing enthusiast, Rex was involved with the Shelby County Speedway for many years, working as a track official for weekly races—an involvement that ultimately led him to meet his wife. Rex was united in marriage to Mary Kae Ossenkop on October 3, 1992, at the United Presbyterian Church in Denison.

Rex joined the Masonic Lodge in 1989 and later became a member of the York Rite Bodies, including Chapter, Council, and Commandery.
He served as Worshipful Master for three years and presided over the cornerstone ceremony for the Therkildsen Center on June 19, 2004. Rex was also an active member of the Shrine and the Harlan Shrine T-Patrol, serving two years as President.

He enjoyed attending the Iowa State Fair Convention and visiting county fairs across the state. Known for his willingness to lend a helping hand, Rex was always there for longtime friends and new acquaintances alike. He served on the Harlan Fair Board for 17 years and in 2007, he was honored with the Shelby County Fair Hall of Fame Award.

Rex continued to operate the family farm, perform custom farm work, and maintain employment off the farm. He drove a bus for Elm Crest and worked part-time for the Department of Transportation doing snow removal. He loved attending high school sporting events, especially football, with Mary Kae. Together, they also enjoyed many trips with the Shriners.

Rex passed away on Saturday, July 19, 2025, at the Salem Lutheran Home in Elk Horn, at the age of 78. He was preceded in death by his parents, Bruce and Mildred Whannell. He is survived by his wife, Mary Kae Whannell of Harlan; his sister, Rhonda and her husband John Mock of Harlan; numerous nieces and nephews; extended family members; and many dear friends.
