Pitching In Award: Each year, the Ida Grove Kiwanis select a winner of the Pitching In Award. This award is designed to recognize those members who go above and beyond in their service to the club. Ida Grove Kiwanis are pleased to honor this year's award winners, who are Rhett and Kathy Leonard, for their many years of service. They are receiving the award from the club secretary Doug Schmidt (left).

Rosemary Clausen Center for Performing Arts announces 2025-2026 Season

Tickets on sale now

The Rosemary Clausen Center for Performing Arts is thrilled to announce that season tickets for the highly anticipated 2025-2026 Entertainment Series are now available to the public. Following a successful renewal period for current subscribers, the center is extending an invitation to new patrons who wish to experience a season of professional live entertainment. Those who purchase season tickets now will receive priority for future seasons.

"We are so excited to welcome new patrons to the Clausen Center," said Kathy Breyfogle, a representative for the volunteer-managed center. "With outstanding sightlines and acoustics, our venue provides a truly wonderful setting for professional entertainment. We're proud to consistently bring in incredibly talented performers, and this upcoming season is no exception."

The Clausen Center offers a unique experience for both audiences and performers. Audiences enjoy high-caliber entertainment close to home, while performers value the intimate setting and enthusiastic local crowds. The Entertainment Series is fully managed by a dedicated team of volunteers, which helps to maintain highly competitive ticket prices.

To order tickets or for more information: Contact the Clausen Center box office at 712-368-4849, by email at vickie.heck@outlook.com, or by regular mail at Box 524, Holstein, IA 51025. Please leave a message for a return call if there is no immediate answer. You can also find additional information about the season and the venue on our website at www.rosemaryclausencenter.com.

Blaine Clovers 4-H Club discusses upcoming events

by Chanel Schulte Club Secretary

The regular meeting of the Blaine Clovers 4-H club was held at the Ida County Extension office on Aug. 24. The meeting was called to order by Kash Schulte at 1 p.m. Roll call was answered by 24 members, including seven new members. Six visitors were present. The Secretary's report and the Treasurer's report were given. Bentlie made a motion to approve both reports. Breanne seconded it, and the motion was approved. We welcomed seven new members. New officers were elected, consisting of President - Kash Schulte, Vice President - Remington Blackmore, Secretary - Chanel Schulte, and Treasurer - Addison Rydberg.

We set presentations and snack schedules for the new 4-H year. A five-meeting rule was discussed, and Davin made a motion to approve the five-meeting rule. Atlee seconded it, and the motion was approved. We discussed who was going to help at the farmers market on Aug. 28. On Sept. 17, the group worked for the GOMACO Golf Invitational at the Skate Palace at 7:15.

Other topics discussed were to get enrollment/re-enrollment, which was open on Sept. 1 and needs to be done no later than Nov. 1. A new housing form rule was discussed, and that everyone has to have one. Record books are due Sept. 29, Oct. 5 is the 4-H skating party, and Oct. 5-11 is National 4-H week. We discussed what we are going to do for businesses that support 4-H. Owen made a motion to hand out candy dishes and have a pizza party. Atlee seconded the motion, and it was approved.

Also mentioned was that Youth Council is for 9-12th graders - applications were due to the extension office by Sept. 17. Then we discussed the good and bad things about the fair, and what we would like to see improve. Kash and Chanel gave a presentation on washing and rinsing a calf.

The next meeting will be Oct. 5 at 1 p.m., at the extension office. Tucker will give a presentation and have a snack, along with the pizza party. Remy made a motion to adjourn the meeting, which was seconded by Bentlie and the motion was approved.

Books & Brew: Oct. 7 at 1:30 p.m. Come and join me for a sweet treat and good conversation! I promise, no over-baked goodies this time!

Kids Crafts: Oct. 14 at 4:15 p.m. Come and decorate a tote bag for Halloween!

Book Club: Oct. 16 at 6:30 p.m. Mind Games by Nora Roberts is the selection for this month. Thea Fox is getting the life she always wanted. She's become a renowned video game designer, a job that allows her to move back to her childhood home in Redbud Hollow, Kentucky. Now she lives in her own cozy cottage, down the road from her beloved Grammie and the house where she grew up. And when her new neighbor turns out to be her teenage crush, the gorgeous lead singer of Code Red, Tyler Brennan, it seems that life can't get any better. However, it hasn't been easy getting here. Thea carries the burden of a special ability, one that she shares with her Grammie. They can both see into people's minds and souls. Sometimes, they can even see the future. Grammie calls it a gift, but ever since the day when Thea saw her parents get murdered in a dream, it's felt like a curse. Thanks to her vision, the police caught the man who did it and put him behind bars. But no matter how far away the killer is, Thea can still hear his twisted thoughts and witness his evil acts. He knows it because he can see into her mind too—and now he's made it his mission to get the ultimate revenge.

Glue & Giggles: Oct. 21 at 6 p.m. We will be making lighted wine bottle scarecrows. Let me know if you plan to attend, as supplies are limited! If you don't like to craft, you are still welcome to come and enjoy the giggles for FREE!

Books for Babies: Let me know if you know of any newborns in the area. We want to send them a little something to welcome them to Galva and the library.

Notary Services are available at the library, whenever Brenda is working. No charge for this service.
