Dow House Pioneer Rendezvous is June 6-8

This Friday through Sunday, the Dow House in Dow City will be the site of all kinds of activities for children and adults alike for the Dow House Rendezvous. The public is welcome. Traders will have things for sale and food will be available for purchase.

Those activities include hide tanning, tomahawk throwing and kids games, as well as tours of the Dow House from 12 p.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday. Workers on-site will also be dressed in period clothing. A potluck dinner will be held on Saturday at 6 p.m.

Board member Casey Carey said the event serves as an educational opportunity for people to come and see what life was like during the pioneer days.

"We like hosting things for the community so that they can come up and participate and learn about history," he said.
