The Most Gruesome Death

There was a long, long line of spirits at the gate waiting to get into heaven. Not all these spirits could fit into heaven, so the ones who died the worst death would be allowed in.

The first man in line started telling his story. "Well, Peter, you see, I knew that my wife was cheating on me so I decided to come home early from work one day to catch them in action. I got home and searched all over but I couldn't find him. Then when I walked out onto the balcony, there he was dangling off the darn thing by his fingertips. So I ran and got a hammer then started beating him with it and he fell. Well, the fall didn't kill him, because he landed in a bush so I picked up the refrigerator and threw it on him. Although that killed him, the strain gave me a heart attack, and here I am."

The next man came up and started his story. "St. Peter, I always work out on my balcony on the 14th floor of my apartment building. I was on my bike one day and I fell off when it flipped. I sailed over the rail and I thought "Please God spare my life" and he did. I caught on to a balcony below me. I was even happier when a man discovered me hanging there. But all of a sudden he started beating my hands with a hammer so I fell again. But the dear Lord saved me again when I landed in a bush. But I'm here now because the guy threw his refrigerator on top of me."

It was now the third guy's turn to start his story. "Well, Peter, just picture this. I'm hiding butt naked in this married chick's refrigerator....."

Grandmothers

At one point during a game, the coach called one of his 9-year-old baseball players aside and asked, "Do you understand what cooperation is? What a team is?"

The little boy nodded in the affirmative.

"Do you understand that what matters is whether we win or lose together as a team?"

The little boy nodded yes. "So," the coach continued, "I'm sure you know, when an out is called, you shouldn't argue, curse, attack the umpire, or call him a stupid SOB. Do you understand all that?"

He continued, "And when I take you out of the game so another guy gets a chance to play, it's not good sportsmanship to call your coach 'a jackass' is it?"

Again, the little boy nodded. "Good," said the coach. "Now go over there and explain all that to your grandmother."

Kids: color stuff in!

Happy Easter!

Yay! Easter is almost here! There's so much to do that my cousin Harry the Hare is here to help me get ready.

What do you know about the Easter holiday? Easter is an important Christian holiday. Christians believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. Easter is the celebration of his "new life after death." It is a time of great joy. Families spend a lot of time getting ready: cleaning, decorating, planning meals, and getting their best clothes ready for church. My crossword puzzle is about Easter and what families are doing. Can you read the clues to fill it in?

Easter Time:

1. the 40 days before Easter; for some people a time for prayer and fasting; many people "give up something," like desserts
3. many Easter services are held at this beginning of a new day
5. ring with joy
7. burn with bright light
9. Easter Bunny brings these, with treats in them...
11. with this kind of rabbit often in the middle
13. beautiful, white flower that stands for "new life after death"
15. soft, yellow baby animals also used as a symbol of new life
17. gentle animal sometimes used as a symbol of Jesus
19. dawning of a new day; can be a time for this

"Double Take" of Easter Fun
Study the items below in the boxes.

- In the first box, find 2 chicks that are exactly alike and positioned the same way.
- In the second box, find 2 baskets that are the same.
- In the third box, find 2 bonnets and then 2 eggs that are exactly the same in the pile.

Jelly Bean Fun Count

Can you make your way through the maze to "pick up" the 12 jelly beans that add up to the number in the jar? You can use a calculator to help. You can pass through jelly beans, but you cannot "go backwards" or cross your own path.
