Winfield museum to host railroad history program

The Winfield Historical Society and Museum will host a spring program highlighting the area's railroad heritage on Sunday, March 15.

The program, titled Ride Through the History of the Rails, will begin at 2 p.m. at the Winfield Community Veterans Building.

Guest speaker Ron Graber of Mount Pleasant will present the program. A longtime railroad enthusiast, Graber grew up one block from the railroad tracks in Mount Pleasant and has worked for Amtrak since the early 1980s. He has served as station manager in Mount Pleasant since 2017.

During the presentation, Graber will discuss the history of Winfield's two railroad lines — the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad and the Minneapolis and St. Louis Railway — and their impact on the community.
