to know customers and already in a short span of time having repeat customers," she said.

Hannes chose the name "Foxy Curations" because "foxy" is an old-school word that means "nice looking," and "curations" because of how she matches old and new styles.

"I don't want this to feel like a normal store," she said. "I want it to be different."

Hannes will have a section of her store set aside for "Foxy Contributors" to sell their own merchandise. In February, she'll have her first contributor, Angela Winter, who will have her own nook called "Another Chapter" to sell new and used books.

Foxy Curations is open 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday through Friday, and 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturday.

Italian Night at Belle Center rescheduled for Jan. 31

MT. PLEASANT - In the face of very cold weather, Iowa WINS chose to reschedule Italian Night.

The festival, honoring the Italian-Americans of Iowa and beyond, will instead be held on Jan. 31, from 5-8 p.m. at the Belle Center in Mt. Pleasant. There will be tapestries, telling these illustrious immigrants' stories, and catered Italian food.

ONLINE ONLY MT PLEASANT, IA HOME & PERSONAL PROPERTY AUCTION

BIDDING ENDS: TUES., FEB. 10TH AT 10AM

1009 E MONROE, MT PLEASANT, IA

Centrally located near grocery stores, restaurants, and major retailers, this 2-bedroom, 1-bath home will sell at absolute auction, regardless of price. The property offers approximately 1,064 sq. ft. of living space with an attached 1-car garage and a full basement. The basement is expansive and has experienced past settling; however, it has been professionally improved with a basement waterproofing system, wall anchor plates, and a sump pump. Additional features include a newer metal roof and a desirable corner lot location. While the interior could benefit from cosmetic updates, this home represents a solid opportunity for homeowners, investors, or renovators looking to add value.
