THE HISTORICAL VIEWPOINT

One Year: 2000

By Casey Jarmes |
The News-Review

"Remember all the hype last year about Y2K? Well, it turned out to be just that: a bunch of useless hype! The century change went by without a problem, proving all of the hype wrong. I thought the world was supposed to end on New Year's Eve. If it was, why are you reading this? Surprise, you're dead...NOT! Now that all of the hype is over, I can honestly say that it was the most annoying thing that I've ever seen."

That's what Ryan Craig wrote in the Jan. 12 issue of the Savage Eye, published in the Sigourney News-Review. It's a good quote to begin this week's dive into how the new millennium changed, or more often, failed to change Keokuk County. Also found in the Savage Eye that year were period appropriate articles on how cool the new technological innovation of burning CDs was; debating the morality of Napster; recounting the horrors of the ILOVEYOU virus; and reviewing "Toy Story 2," "Star Wars: The Phantom Menace," "Scream 3" and "Erin Brockovich."

Early in the year, Sigourney was struck by a rash of burglaries, with burglars breaking into SIEDA Head Start, Kinds Jack and Jill, the White House Lounge, Martin Feed Shed, Sigourney High School, the Christian Church of Sigourney, Bender Foundry, Greenley Office Supply in January and February, usually taking money. On Feb. 2, the Sigourney City Council shut down the zoo owned by local man Dave Finch.

On March 3 and 4, the Keota Community Theater presented the musical "Sugar," an adaptation of "Some Like It Hot." On March 31 and April 1, Sigourney High School presented "Seven Nuns at Las Vegas." On April 14 and 15, the Keokuk County Arts Council presented the play "My Son is Crazy - But Promising." On Dec. 2 and 3, Sigourney High School presented "Three Musketeers...All Swash and No Buckle." On Nov. 10 and 11, Tri-County presented "Done to Death."

On May 1, the Dumont Museum opened a new room featuring memorabilia from famed actor and musician Roy Rogers. On July 1, the room was dedicated with a concert by Rogers' son Roy "Dusty" Rogers Jr. Museum owner Lyle Dumont had been fascinated by Rogers since the 50s. In 1982, he met Roy Rogers and Dale Evans while visiting the Roy Rogers Museum in California. The Dumonts befriended Rogers and Evans, going to visit them once or twice a year over the next 16 years and attending Rogers' private family funeral service in 1998.

On May 6, Midge Walker and Mary Albert opened Walk "ER" Drive-Thru. One June 1, work began to flood part of Belva Deer park, moving 400,000 yards of dirt to build a half-mile dam and create the 260 acre lake. On May 27, Jonathan Wallerich ran the 100 meter dash in just 11.20 seconds, winning the state championship.

On June 1, Enrique Ordonez Sanchez and Javier Rascon flagged down a passing truck driver near Keswick, saying they had been shot at, before running off into a field. The trucker called the sheriff's department, who found Sanchez and Rascon hiding in a brush. While investigating the incident, the police found 25 kilos of marijuana and arrested the pair for possession with intent to deliver. Arrest warrants were issued for a Jesus "Jessie" Quiroz, also for possession with intent to deliver, but I was unable to find anymore information on what happened to him or on why Sanchez and Rascon had been shot at. A drug deal gone wrong, perhaps?

Hanna Redling and Kaden Benson were the winners of the Lions Club's 4th of July Cutie Kiddie Contest. Amber Snakenberg was the Expo Queen, while Ashley Schultz was the Fair Queen. Sapphire Gatton and Zachary Sams were crowned Little Miss and Mr. Keokuk County.

In July, Michael Murphy of Delta's sewer system became plugged. The city told him they could do nothing, because the obstruction was in his section of the sewer line. Murphy did not take this well and showed up at the July 10 city council meeting, carrying a five-gallon bucket full of urine and feces. Murphy splattered the council with the waste, earning himself 75 days in jail.

On July 31, the ribbon was cut for the opening of Sinclair Tractor. On August 21, vandals broke into and smashed up the Ike's. On September 5, Leland Heisdorffer of Heisdorffer Sales and Service saw two men breaking into his business. He rammed his car into theirs and the men fled into a field. The robbers, Jamey Don Davidson and Mark Campbell, were quickly apprehended. Chad Greiner and Amy Wells were the Sigourney Homecoming king and queen.

For the third year in a row, the Sigourney-Keota Savage Cobras made the state football semi-finals, only to lose. In 2000, their loss came at the hands of Solon, losing 21-35. Four members of the team (T.J. Greiner, J.D. Greiner, Derek Greiner and Nick Baker) were named to the All-State team. After the game, Coach Bob Howards stated "the outlook for 2001 is bright. What the outcome

Letter to the Editor Policy

The News-Review welcomes the opinions of our readers in the form of letters to the editor, as long as the submissions are not in bad taste and refrain from attacking individuals without supporting documentation or a rational and legally defensible justification. In any event the newspaper reserves the sole discretion to decide whether or not a reader submission will be published. If your letter is selected it will be run on a single occasion and you agree to give us the right to publish it in print and digital form. The News-Review will not accept letters that are duplicated, reprinted, copied, or otherwise reproduced. Letters should be original, type-written or neatly handwritten. Letters should not exceed 300 words. Letters exceeding this length could be subject to editing and may not be published in their entirety.

The News-Review does not as a general rule print form letters or letters which are also submitted to other newspapers. We are most interested in sincere personal views as opposed to canned publicity releases or talking points for an individual or a cause, therefore if a writer cannot assure us that their submission is individual and personal, it may be rejected.

Your Letter to the Editor must include:

- Your full name with signature
- Your complete address
- Your telephone number

Your address and telephone number will not be printed in the newspaper, but will be used for verification by newspaper editorial staff.

Unsigned letters and letters containing personal attacks the newspaper deems to be of a libelous nature will not be published. The News-Review reserves the right to end debate on a topic after both sides have had ample chance to express their views. The News-Review reserves the right to edit or refuse all letters. All columns and letters on the opinion page are the views of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of The News-Review.

Correction and Retraction Policy

The News-Review strives for accurate and complete news reporting but occasionally we get it wrong. In cases where an error has been made we will run a correction, clarification, retraction or editor's note in the next edition. Our goal in any event is to inform readers of corrections clearly and quickly, citing the incorrect information and updating with the correct information.

All corrections will be printed on page 2A in the next issue published. The correction will denote the issue, article and incorrect information along with the correction. Digital corrections will also be made and an editor's note will be added to the bottom of the article in question noting what was inaccurate and noting when the article was amended. If the article was posted on Facebook, Twitter or any other online medium controlled by The News-Review, a post will be made linking to the corrected article, noting the correction.
