As the temperatures begin to warm up and the snow melts, the Bancroft park is beginning to come alive with kids. Friday afternoon, March 11, a group of boys and girls decided to play a game of football. The kids could be heard laughing and having fun. While kids were swinging and playing on the slides and the football game, two young boys decided to play some hoops on the basketball court... Tickets are now on sale for the hilarious comedy Suite Surrender, a play presented by Backstage in Bancroft... The St. John Catholic Church basement... The Bancroft Chamber of Commerce is excited to announce it has a useful tool in getting word out on Bancroft happenings. Bancroft where Tony grew up.

He was drafted into the Army the fall of 1966, he was stationed at Fort Carson in Colorado Springs before being sent to Vietnam for a tour of duty, where he served from December 1967-August 1968 with the First Battalion Sixth Infantry, until he was honorably discharged from the United States Army on August 31, 1968. Arriving home he was finally reunited with the love of his life, they took off on an adventure to spend some time together, the time that was robbed from them when Tony was sent to Vietnam.

He began farming in the fall of 1968, which he continued to do until he retired in 2012. He also retired from barbering at the same time. He enjoyed being with his family, spending countless hours with his grandchildren and also babysitting them, he never missed a sporting event for his grandkids. He enjoyed it when Chris and Corey, his brothers Kenny and John came for a visit. You could never walk into his house for a visit without him saying "you know where the beer is". He also enjoyed mowing the lawn and classic cars.

He is survived by his two daughters, Kerry Kahler and Heather Vaske; and her husband Chris of Bancroft; two grandchildren, Jordan Vaske and her special friend Jake of Algona, and Corey and his wife Hailey of Bancroft; three great grandchildren, Laelynn, Emery and Phoenix, and Ruby Vaske on the way. He is also survived by four brothers: Albert (Marry) Kahler, Allen (Deb) Kahler, Kenny (Elaine) Kahler, and John (Pam) Kahler; two sisters, Barb (Rich) Ruzicka and Betty Hansen; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his wife; his parents; two sisters, Donna Hellman and Shirley Kahler; and two brothers, Herman Kahler and a brother in infancy.
