WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has imposed sanctions on Cuban President Miguel Diaz-Canel, along with his wife and three other individuals, according to a filing Thursday from the U.S. Treasury Department. It's the latest Trump administration move to pressure the island's leadership.

Included in the sanctions are Alejandro Castro Espin, the sole son of former President Raul Castro and Vilma Espin. He served as an adviser to Cuba's Defense and National Security Commission and was present when Raul Castro greeted then-U.S. President Barack Obama in Havana during a historic March 2016 meeting. Castro Espin's son, Raul Alejandro Castro Calis, was also listed.

The sanctions come after U.S. President Donald Trump signed an executive order expanding sanctions against the island and has been threatening military action ever since ousting Venezuelan leader Nicol's Maduro in January and then ordering an energy blockade that choked off fuel shipments to Cuba. That has led to severe blackouts, food shortages and an economic collapse.
