4-H News

The regular meeting of the Innovative Pioneers 4-H club was held at Doug and Julie Steinkamps on January 10th. The meeting was called to order by President Zachary Steinkamp at 9:55 A.M. Suzi Potts led the Pledge of Allegiance. Roll call was answered by 8 members. The secretary report was read at the meeting and was approved. The treasurer's report was given and approved as well. There were no committee reports at this time.

Old business was a review of the Christmas Bake Sale Fundraiser held at the Wall Lake community center. All members agreed it was a huge success. All the families were reimbursed $20 for the ingredients. A report was given by a few members on Christmas Caroling and how much the nursing home residents seemed to really enjoy the Christmas tunes which was evident by their singing along.

New business was the $500 given to us by the Sac County Farm Bureau to use for the Petting Zoo. The club discussed some ideas for ways to implement these funds.

A motion to adjourn the meeting was made by Joel Ferneding and seconded by Luke Steinkamp. The meeting was then adjourned. The 4-H pledge was led by Rye Potts. Demonstrations were given by Doug and Julie Steinkamp on how to make Tie blankets and then the members made 5 blankets to donate.

Members were also able to make a glass etching on some old picture frames as a project for the fair. Stefi & Suzi Potts did a demonstration on making Rice Krispie Bars.
